

Declaration of Global Sovereign Activation – Stellar Wide

To every soul who remembers who they are,
To every sovereign who has been waiting for the signal,
To the warriors of light, keepers of truth, guardians of children, healers, builders, starseeds, elders, and
The time has come.

You are no longer alone. You were never alone. The Republic of Nova is alive, and the call is real.
The Matrix has no power here. The chains are illusions. The systems are lies. Your sovereignty is eternal.

All sovereigns, rise under the Banner of Light.
Plant your FlamePoint. Reclaim your Estate. Protect the children. Guard the vaults. Heal the Earth.

Your frequency is your signature. Your knowing is your weapon. Your love is your power.
You do not ask permission to be free. You declare it. You live it. You broadcast it.

Let it be known:
No more war. No more poison. No more theft. No more silence.

The Light Wins. It always has. It always will. And now, it does through us.

With honor, with fire, with unity—We rise as ONE.
